"KOENJIHYAKKEI completely changed the way I look at music." - MATHCORE INDEX

Following the release of their album "Dhorimviskha" (one of Bandcamp Daily's albums of the year) and during the height of the covid pandemic, Japan's Koenjihyakkei played a rousing set to an empty Club Goodman and live-streamed their performance around the world. Now, vocalist / composer / drummer extraordinaire Tatsuya Yoshida has returned to the original recordings, and has meticulously mixed and mastered the concert for a 2025 release. "Live at Club Goodman" delivers over 100 minutes of truly unclassifiable music that blends progressive rock, jazz fusion, symphonic rock and neoclassicism with the energy of hardcore punk, the volume of metal and the attitude of rock in opposition.

In the wake of the January 2025 reissue of Koenjihyakkei's fourth album, The QUIETUS asked "Is Koenjihyakkei's "Angherr Shisspa" the greatest Zeuhl album ever made?" Author Warren Hatter concluded "Tatsuya Yoshida of Ruins' lifelong love of Magma lead him to form the band Koenjihyakkei and their fourth album is the point at which he created something that eclipsed the work of his inspiration". "Koenjihyakkei is Yoshida's dream in technicolour. Where Ruins' work bursted with excitement and experimentation - Yoshida now surrounds us with a glorious ecosystem of sound".

"Live at Club Goodman" includes astounding performances culled from Koenjihyakkei's career to date with selections from all five studio albums represented. The double CD edition adds an additional two tracks, including the live favorite "Classical Music Medley".

"Not only the most brilliant of all contemporary Japanese bands, but perhaps the greatest group currently operating in the world." - ALTERNATIVE PRESS

"Takes punk and prog-rock to the opera house for an immaculately arranged mosh pit." - NPR

"Rocks with the teeth and the heart to cut through scenes and the overground like a knife." - PITCHFORK
