< PRESS QUOTES >

o "For those of you scoring at home, my favorite song in the entire game { Guitar Hero II } is "Yes We Can" by Made in Mexico.
- "Wil Wheaton [Wesley Crusher, Star Trek: The Next Generation]

o "Vocalist Rebecca Mitchell alternately speak-sings in dry detachment or warbles and shrieks like Diamanda Galás (with Lydia Lunch's range) in a back alley brawl. The guitar sounds like it's being swung around by loosened strings, the bass like it's being hit with a rubber mallet, and the drums like they're being used as trampolines by a free jazz maniac attempting the Stooges catalog. And if the above descriptions sound appealing -- and they're not meant to discourage -- then this album will not disappoint. Made in Mexico is a catharsis for misanthropes and stress-cases everywhere, and is guaranteed to rile the savage beast in all of us."
- All Music Guide

o "A completely fucked-up "psychedelic" rock band, giving your ears a bad LSD trip from hell.... I listened to made in mexico's songs, and i bled from the ears."
- UrbanDictionary.com

o "The best of the post-Arab on Radar sweepstakes"
-Weasel Walter (Flying Luttenbachers, Lake of Dracula).
